Discover Berchtesgaden

Berchtesgaden is an area of rich cultural heritage and natural beauty in south-east Germany, close to the Austrian border. Encounter historic monasteries, churches and the Royal Castle—once home to the Bavarian monarchy—and explore the breathtaking lakes and awesome mountains that surround the town...

Facilities and accommodation

Intercultural Summer Camp is based at CJD Berchtesgaden boarding school, benefitting from excellent facilities: en-suite accommodation, indoor swimming pool, basketball court, soccer field, climbing tower and large gymnasium.

With a canteen and medical facilities, CJD Berchtesgaden has everything required to ensure that the Camp can run safely and smoothly.

About us

Intercultural Summer Camp combines language learning, cultural education and exciting activities. We aim to provide young people from around the world with the opportunity to build mutual understanding, develop valuable skills and share extraordinary experiences.

Camp objectives

- Language competence: Learn and share a language
- Intercultural competence: Communicate, connect and share experiences
- Environmental competence: Get active and explore the natural world together
- Personal development: Develop personal, social and life skills

Intercultural Summer Camp is organised by Norwich Study Centre, Flying Classrooms (an English language school in Norwich, UK) in partnership with the Christian Association of Youth Villages (CJD) in Berchtesgaden, Germany.
